General Notes:

There are 3 different John Holmes found in the 1820 US Census from Hopkinton, Hillsborough, New Hampshire. The correct John Holmes was born 27 Jan 1779 thus making him 41 years old for the 1820 census but of those names that were enumerated making a specific identification is nearly impossible.

This John Holmes listed as age 45 and up on page 778 is close to the age of the correct John Holmes who would be age 41. But if this is the correct one, then he should have been listed as being in the age group 26-45 instead of 45 and up.

The John Holmes Jr, age 26-45 also on page 778, and the other John Holmes, age 26-454 on page 787 are both probably not correct because the correct John Holmes was not a Junior. His father was Benjamin Holmes.

Was this the correct John Holmes? There was a John Holmes Sr and a John Holmes Jr that show up consecutively on the 1830 census form.

3 females 5-10
1 female 30-40 (probably the wife)
1 female 50-60
1 female 70-80
12 family members total

According to the census data, John Sr was probably the male that was between 40 to 50 years old in his family listing. The John Holmes Jr was probably the male that was 30-40 years old in his family listing. The age of the correct John Holmes would have been 51 years old so while the senior John's age was not exactly listed in the correct age group, this was probably the correct John Holmes.

The listing for a John Holmes Jr immediately following the listing for the senior means that he probably was a son. No birth records have yet been found. Living in his household was a female 30-40 years old who was probably his wife but there were also two elderly females of unknown relationship. One was 50-60 years old and the other was 70-80 years old.

John Holmes (Senior) was born in 1779 and would have been about 60 at the time of this census yet there are no such family members in that age group on this 1840 enumeration.

Therefore, this census was probably for his son, "John Holmes Jr," who appears with his own family on the 1830 census right after the enumeration of John Holmes, the father.

The son was probably born about 1800 which accounts for the 1 older male age 30 to 40 and female age 30 to 40 on the 1830 census for the listing of the "John Holmes, Jr." and with his wife are most likely the 1 older male age 40 to 50 and female age 40 to 50 on this 1840 census.

General Notes:

The is not a clear cut consensus amongst researchers as to the name of his wife or even if he had more than one wife. One wife is believed to be "Phyla Bryant" but the spelling of the given name varies somewhat. Some researchers also show the same or possible second wife named "Philena Griffin". The spelling of the given names for the first and second wife seems more than just coincidental and therefore they might be the same person. This is supported by the death record for the son, Leonard, which shows his mother's name as "Philena Griffin".

Elijah Holmes

1 male 45 and up (Elijah)

1 female 45 and up (wife)

(2 family members total)

NOTE - This is probably not the correct person. Elijah's age would have been 31 years and this census if for a person age 45 years and up. Also, it is believed that by 1820, Elijah had one son named Leonard who would have been about 7 years old at the time. This census listing shows no children in the family.

The 1850 US Census record from Salisbury, Merrimack County, New Hampshire shows a 64 year old Elijah Holmes living at the home of a William Holmes, age 34 and who is probably his wife, Jane Holmes, age 28. While the age given on the census of 64 for Elijah closely matches the expected age of about 62, there are a few problems with the information about the younger William who presumably is the son of Elijah who is living with a wife and two young children.

For example, a marriage record issued just over one year later in Dec 1851 for William D. Holmes and Eliza Blood indicate that it was to be the first marriage for each of them. Therefore the William in the 1850 census with a wife could not have been the correct William.

Additionally the age of William D. Holmes from his marriage record would seem to indicate a birth year of about 1825 but the William listed on the 1850 US Census would seem to have a birth year of about 1816.

If the older Elijah was not living with his son, then this would tend to indicate that the 1850 US Census record was not for the correct Elijah and William Holmes. However, a close examination of the marriage record for William in Dec 1851 mentions that his father currently resides in Salisbury, NH which is exactly where the 1850 US Census record was enumerated.

Therefore this does sound as if it was the correct Elijah but perhaps the wrong William and Jane Holmes. I have no idea who the William and Jane Holmes could have been especially considering the real William D. Holmes was to be married for his first time in just over one years time.

Phineas married Abigail N. Howe,^{79,81} daughter of Ebenezer Howe and Hannah Mallon, on 25 Sep 1825 in Charlestown, MA.⁸² Abigail was born in 1802 in New Hampshire,^{79,81} died on 4 Sep 1880 in Adair County, MO⁸¹ at age 78, and was buried after 4 Sep 1880 in Wilson, MO.⁸¹ Another name for Abigail was Abigail Stewart.⁸²

Marriage Notes:

There is a record of a marriage between Phineas Holmes and Abigail Stewart on 25 Sep 1825 in Charlestown, Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts. It is not known if Abigail Stewart and Abigail Howe were the same person or not.

Phineas H. Holmes was born in Hopkinton, Hillsborough County, New Hampshire and it is not known if he would have traveled a distance of about 75 miles to Suffolk County, Massachusetts to be married. Abigail Howe was also born in New Hampshire but her parents were originally from Massachusetts but had relocated to New Hampshire.

The actual name of the bride as Abigail Howe or Abigail Stewart becomes important as it may or may not indicate the wrong people. There are records of birth to several children being born to the couple in Massachusetts which may result in a number of incorrect births being reported for the wrong couple. These children include William Wallace Holmes, George Kendall Holmes, John Holmes, and perhaps others. The mother's name is only shown as Abigail for each birth and no maiden name is presented.

It may be possible that Abigail Howe was first married to a Stewart when she was remarried to Phineas Holmes in 1825 but no record of a previous marriage can be found. That 1825 marriage record does not indicate if was the first or subsequent marriage for either party nor does it contain the names of the parents of either the bride or groom which might help identify Abigail's maiden name.

Another possibility is that Abigail's maiden name was incorrectly entered on the marriage register as Stewart instead of Howe. There are no images available of the actual marriage document.

If Abigail Howe and Abigail Stewart were the same person, then it seems that both she and Phineas were from New Hampshire yet were married in Massachusetts. Their first 3 children were born in Massachusetts but the 4th child was supposedly born back in New Hampshire. Sometime between 1832 and 1838, they moved to Ohio where their 5th child was born. After 1838, the couple then moved to Missouri.

One bit of evidence to support the mother's maiden name was Howe is that their 4th child had a middle name of Howe, a common practice at this time to use the wife's maiden name as part of the children's names. Therefore, this database assumes that both Abigails were the same person.

After their 1850 US Census in Ohio, Phineas and Abigail are not found anywhere in the 1860 or 1870 US Census. Abigail died about 10 years after Phineas but she was buried 8 miles away in a different cemetery. I'm not sure of any reason why but perhaps they were divorced. Otherwise it seems that at least one of the children born to William Wallace Holmes, a son of Phineas and Abigail, was buried at the Wilson Cemetery as well as William himself. This suggests that Abigail and her son, William, and perhaps some of the other children were living in Wilson. Regardless, there still are many Holmes and other relatives buried at the La Plata cemetery with Phineas. Even the wife of William Wallace Holmes was later buried in the La Plata cemetery. Her gravestone mentions the name of her husband but notes that he is buried in Wilsontown Cemetery beside their young son, Quiller Holmes.

General Notes:

One source citation (<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:FL53-VLQ?from=lynx1UIV8&treeref=LH8Z-LFG>) was indexed to show a birth date of 14 Feb 1788 but the birth year on the birth record was written slightly indistuishable. It is written as either 1780 or 1788. But it also clearly indicates that this was the 7th child born to the couple thus she was born between 1778 and 1781 which were the birth years of the 6th and 8th children. Therefore, the birth year should be 1780 and not 1788.

There is another source citation (<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:FDNK-2YC?from=lynx1UIV8&treeref=LH8Z-LFG>) which does indicate the correct birth date of 14 Feb 1780 but this citation does not show the actual birth image.

"Massachusetts Deaths, 1841-1915," database with images, FamilySearch (<https://familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:N71H-5J7> : 6 April 2020), Mary Holmes in entry for Ira Holmes, 16 Jan 1890; citing Groton, Massachusetts, v 410 p 127, State Archives, Boston; FHL microfilm 961,501.

General Notes:

Because the name of Ira Holmes was such a common name in Massachusetts at the time, determining the correct person and correct family is very difficult and sometimes just a guessing game. Even his correct parentage is assumed mostly because the death records for Ira and his daughter, Abigail, show that his birth location was Hopkinton, New Hampshire. The John and Mary Holmes that were living in Hopkinton around the time of his birth are the most likely candidates for parentage.

There is an 1855 Massachusetts State Census which shows an Ira Holmes living with the Ervin family in Pepperell. His age would seem to indicate a correct birth year of 1815 but this is most likely not correct person because it shows an apparent wife named Susan.

There is another 1855 Massachusetts State Census in Taunton, Bristol County, Massachusetts which shows an Ira Holmes living with a wife named Maria with 2 young children. Because he was married to Mary Abigail Reed in about 1852, therefore it means that this is not the correct Ira Holmes.

There is another 1855 Massachusetts State Census in Lowell, Middlesex County, Massachusetts which shows merely a "Mr. and Mrs. Holmes", both aged 30 to 40 years old. The Mrs. Holmes appears to be born in New Hampshire with Mr. Holmes born in Massachusetts. There are no children shown with the couple. But the 1860 US Census shows the real Ira Holmes, with his 2nd wife have a son born about 1853. Therefore this 1855 state census which shows Mr. and Mrs Holmes without any children is most likely not the correct person.

So, where is the real Ira Holmes in the 1855 Massachusetts State Census? There should be one showing Ira, his wife of 6 years, Mary Abigail Reed, and at least one child, a son aged about 3. So far no reliable reference to him, his 2nd wife, or their one son has been found.

The marriage dates vary slightly based on the referenced document which does not necessarily show the actual event. Some documents show a historic and archaic terminology still being used in Massachusetts at the time such as a "Marriage Intention" or "Purpose of Marriage" which I gather are similar to a modern day marriage application.

His second marriage to Abigail Angelina Reed is somewhat puzzling. There is a March 1852 marriage record from Pepperell, Massachusetts for an Ira Holmes (b. about 1817) and Mary A. Read (b. about 1828).

On that document, Ira's father is correctly given as John Holmes but his mother's name is Mrs. Betsy (or Retsy) Holmes instead of the expected "Mary".

Descendants of John Holmes

Other than the exact given names for the bride and Ira's mother being somewhat wrong, this would seem to be the correct Ira Holmes because of the following:

The "Intention of Marriage" papers filed a month before in February in Pepperell state that Ira was born in Hopkinton, New Hampshire and that this was to be his second marriage. This matches exactly what is known about the correct Ira Holmes. But why the bride's name appears as "Mary A. " instead of the expected "Abigail Angelina" is a mystery. Abigail's mother's name was Mary so perhaps this was a clerical error on the document.

So the question is if this was the correct Ira Holmes. There is no other marriage record found for the correct Ira Holmes and Abigail Angelina-Mary Reed.

Descendants of John Holmes

General Notes:

The 1850 US Census record from Salisbury, Merrimack County, New Hampshire shows a 64 year old Elijah Holmes living at the home of a William Holmes, age 34 and a female who is probably his wife, Jane Holmes, age 28. While the age given on the census of 64 for Elijah closely matches the expected age of about 62, there are a few problems with the information about the younger William who presumably is the son of Elijah who is living with a wife and two young children.

For example, a marriage record issued just over one year later in Dec 1851 for William D. Holmes and Eliza Blood indicate that it was to be the first marriage for each of them. Therefore since they were not yet married, the William in the 1850 US Census with a wife could not have been the correct William.

Additionally the age of William D. Holmes from his marriage record would seem to indicate a birth year of about 1825 but the William listed on the 1850 US Census would seem to have a birth year of about 1816.

If the older Elijah was not living with his son, then this would tend to indicate that the 1850 US Census record was not for the correct Elijah and William Holmes. However, a close examination of the marriage record for William in Dec 1851 mentions that his father currently resides in Salisbury, NH which is exactly where the 1850 US Census record was enumerated.

Therefore this does sound as if it was the correct Elijah Holmes but perhaps the wrong William and Jane Holmes. I have no idea who the William and Jane Holmes could have been especially considering the real William D. Holmes was to be married for his first time in just over one years time.

Death Notes:

The death date and location are without any source citations and only referenced by a researcher who posted the info to FamilySearch.org. There is no reason to believe that John Holmes who was a farmer in Ohio and had a daughter born in 1851, suddenly travel to California only to die in 1853. However, the location specified of Amador County, California was heavily involved in the gold rush that started in 1849 so it may be possible that he went there with dreams of getting rich quick.

General Notes:

Some researchers will show his surname spelled as Homes instead of Holmes but that appears to be a spelling convention that was intentionally or accidentally adopted by his surviving family members after his death in 1892. All census documents and marriage documents created while he was living show his surname spelled as Holmes. His gravestone was erected following his death and the surname was spelled as Homes. Thirty years later when his 2nd wife died, her gravestone used the Homes spelling. When his sons Edward and Charles from his 2nd wife died in 1953 and 1895 respectively, their gravestones used the Homes spelling.

Parker Hill spelled his surname Homes, as did his father, Edward Parker Homes. Edward Parker Homes' father, Parker Howe Holmes took out the "L" from Holmes because his name was misspelled on a deed that was given him from his dad, Phineas (Phinehas) who also removed the "L" from his surname.

possible source on the 1860 US Census of Ira Holmes in Pepperell, Massachusetts. Living next door to them was John P. Tarbell and his family. Perhaps Ira was fond of this family and gave their name as the middle name to one of his sons. Also the name of the town clerk of Pepperell was George Tarbell.

Possible 1900 US Census

Charles was previously living in Cherry Valley, Illinois and there would have been little reason for him to return to Pepperell, Massachusetts but he is not found anywhere else as living in Illinois. The census shows him living next to his 1/2 brother Ira Cates Holmes and his family.

CHARLES HOLMES FOUND DEAD IN BED

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR SUC-
CUMBED TO RHEUMATISM OF THE HEART.

Rheumatism of the heart is believed to have caused the death of Charles Holmes, whose lifeless body was found in his bed at the home of his son, William Holmes, 1122 Charles street, about 10:15 Monday morning.

Deceased retired to his room Sunday evening about 8:30 o'clock and was last seen alive about 9 o'clock. He was accustomed to read an hour or so before going to bed and was thus engaged when Mrs. Holmes went upstairs at 9 o'clock. He had no regular time for arising, sometimes remaining in bed until 10 o'clock so when he did not appear before that time nothing strange was thought of it. However about 10:15 o'clock his daughter-in-law called to him and receiving no response entered his room. A glance at the body satisfied her life was extinct and she notified her husband who was working in the country. Dr. Haughey was summoned and gave it as his opinion that death had ensued about 10 hours before.

Mr. Holmes has been in comparatively good health this fall although his knee injured two years ago was sprained again about a month ago. He also complained of rheumatism in his left arm and shoulder at times and this ailment bothered him on Sunday.

Charles Holmes was born in East Peperell, Mass. in February, 1843. Belvidere was his home for years previous to his removal to Rockford three years ago, since which time he made his home with his son William. Deceased was a veteran of the civil war having served four years in Co. F. of the Twenty-ninth Iowa Volunteers. Mr. Holmes never affiliated with G. L. Nevius post.

The widow, six sons and four daughters survive. They are William, Edward, and Frank Holmes. Mrs. Clarence Leggett, Mrs. William Crowell, Rockford; Walter, Seattle, Wash.; Fred, Chicago; Mrs. Byron Walker, Belvidere, Mrs. Frank Wagner, Charles City, Iowa, and another son in Cherry Valley, Ira Holmes living at East Peperell, Mass., is a brother and there are nineteen grandchildren living.

Coroner McAllister held an inquest at the home yesterday afternoon and the jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes, the appearance of the body indicating a passing of the spirit without a struggle.

The funeral of Charles Holmes will be held from the home of his son William, 1122 Charles street, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. D. E. Williamson will officiate.

"Illinois, County Marriages, 1810-1940," database with images, FamilySearch (<https://familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:QK9L-5TDN> : 17 October 2017), Charles Holmes and Mary J Packard, 24 Dec 1867; citing Winnebago, Illinois, United States, county offices, Illinois; FHL microfilm 1,914,066.

Neither Charles nor Mary can be located in the 1900 US Census but in 1910 both are found separately with each living with one of their married children. I suspect that sometime after the birth of their last child in 1886 that the couple started to split up, although not divorced, and lived separately in the Rockford area for a number of years perhaps even eluding the census enumerators during 1900. However, the obituary for Charles in November of 1910, several months after the census was taken, indicates that both Charles and Mary were living with their son, Charles William Holmes.

The obituary for Charles Tarbell Holmes is interesting in that it claims he had 10 children (7 sons and 3 daughters) yet almost all researchers, myself included, only show a total of seven names (only 4 sons and 3 daughters). The obituary for Charles specifically names the following children:

1. [Charles] William
2. [Ira] Edward
3. Frank
4. Walter (a previously unknown name)
5. Fred (a previously unknown name)
6. Wagner (a previously unknown name)
7. another son (only mentioned in the obituary as "another son" but this was probably Benjamin who was adopted out; aka Francis Stimax)
8. [Addie] Mrs. Leggett
9. [Clara] Mrs. Crowell
10. the obituary only provided 9 names but said he had 10 children. The tenth name was probably his daughter, Rose Walker.

Meanwhile, the obituary for his wife, Mary Josephine Holmes, is also interesting in that it claims she had 9 children (4 sons and 5 daughters). Her obituary specifically names the following children:

1. [Charles] William
2. [Ira] Edward
3. Frank
4. Bert (this would be Benjamin who was adopted out and became known as Francis Stimax)
5. Adeline Noreen
6. Rose Walker
7. May Wagner (a previously unknown name)
8. Clara Gustafson
9. Bertha Holmes (a previously unknown name and unmarried)

The difference between their two obituaries is that the one for Charles shows 3 additional sons and the one for Mary shows 2 additional daughters. If these 5 additional names were indeed their children, then when added to the seven known and verified children's names, their total would be up to 12. So how much faith should I put into these obituaries? Should I add May and Bertha as daughters? Should I add the sons Walter, Fred, and Wagner? At this point, I think it all to be erroneous information added by surviving relatives who did not really know. As the siblings died off, none of the obituaries seem to mention these previously unknown names so this reinforces the idea that they were erroneous names coming from surviving relatives when Charles and Mary died.

On the 1910 US Census when Mary was living with her married son, Frank, she indicated that she had a total of 11 children and all 11 were still alive. This census was just about 6 months before Charles died.

On top of all this confusion about the names and number of children, there is the possibility on additional daughter, Helen Mae Holmes, born about 1883 in Cherry Valley, Illinois. Of course the 1890 US Census that would show her with the family is the census that was destroyed in the fire. And the family is not found at all for the 1900 US Census. She was supposedly married in 1904 in Charles City, Floyd County, Iowa in 1904. There are no other records or documents that show either her maiden name or her married name. Notice the names of the parents for Helen Mae Holmes in the following marriage record:

General Notes:

Some researchers show a child born to Annie and Joseph Blakey that was named William W. Blakey. They are probably basing this on the fact that the 1900 US Census shows a son living with the couple. However, that son's birth date was given as being born in the year 1878 which was about 12 years before Annie and Joseph were married. Their marriage record shows that this was the second marriage for Joseph. Therefore, William W. Blakey was a son born to the first wife of Joseph Blakey and was not born to Annie.

General Notes:

Adolphus was probably not a biological son of Erastus and Mary Roberts. The reasons for this are that his name was missing from the 1870 US Census when he would have been about 9 years old and the fact that he was the only sibling that was born in Ohio instead of Missouri. There is no evidence that Erastus and Mary ever traveled back to Ohio.

However, Mary H. Holmes was born near Athens County, Ohio where Adolphus was born. It may be possible that Adolphus could have been a nephew to Mary from one of her siblings that could not care for him and he might have been sent to live with Mary and Erastus adopting either officially or unofficially the Roberts surname. This transfer from Ohio to Missouri would have occurred sometime between 1870 and 1880 when Adolphus first appeared on the 1880 US Census with Erastus and Mary Roberts.

There seems to be no source citations pertaining to a birth for Adolphus Frederick Roberts in Ohio around 1860 so his true parentage is unknown.

Adolphus and his wife, Elmina, were not enumerated in the 1920 US Census because at that time they had left to visit their son, his wife, and their grandchild in Changsha, Hunan, China according to their passport application. They remained there for about one year to return home to Boulder, Colorado in 1921.

On the same day, their son, Roy, also made a passport application with his young son, Everett, to return to Shanghai, China after his first wife had died their earlier that year.

Still residing in China at the time was their oldest son, Raymond with his wife, Eva. Both brothers were in China for work related to their profession as civil engineers. Both brothers would return to Colorado shortly after 1924.

Vincette M. "Nettie" Roberts.

There seems to be no other information about the death date or location of "Nettie" Roberts. However, the WWI Draft Registration Card for her husband, Charles Bradford Wilson, shows him living in Oak Creek, Routt County, Colorado in 1918. On that card, he lists his son, Charles Fitz Wilson, as the closest relative that would always know his address. Typically, a husband lists the name of his spouse but because the name of Nettie Wilson was not listed, it is probably safe to assume that she died before 1918. Some researchers claim that she died in 1908 but no source citations have been provided.

Her husband, Charles, is not found in the 1910 or 1920 US Census records but the 1930 US Census shows him living in Reno, NV and he was listed as widowed. Their son, Charles Fitz Wilson, was married on Los Angeles, CA in 1922.

Her birth year varied from 1867, 1868, and 1869. Her actual given name is not found on any official document so there is some discrepancy if it was Adeline or simply Addie as found on almost all census and death records.

Addie was married on Christmas Eve of 1884 at the age of 16 in nearby Rock County, Wisconsin presumably because where they lived in Winnebago County, Illinois required a minimum age of 18.

In the 1900 US Census she indicated that she already had given birth to 7 children but only 3 were still alive. In the 1910 US Census she indicated a total of 8 children but 6 were still alive. The numbers from the 1910 US Census seem most plausible because I have records for the 6 known children.

Addie and Clarence were divorced sometime following the death of her father on 4 Dec 1910. She then married Charles Noreen from Sweden.

In what has to be the strangest household I've seen, the 1920 US Census shows Addie, her 2nd husband, two of her children, and her ex-husband all living together.

In another strange twist, the 1930 US Census shows one of her sons from her 1st husband still living with them but his surname had changed from Leggett to Noreen apparently meaning that Charles Noreen may have adopted the 29 year old stepson. Or perhaps it's just a case of the enumerator erroneously assuming that the son of the wife must be the son of the husband and therefore have the same surname. The latter is probably true because in the 1940 US Census, after Charles Noreen had died, Addie is found widowed and living with the same son mentioned in the 1930 US Census but this time he has his original Leggett surname.

Addie and both of her husbands are buried in Cedar Bluff Cemetery in Rockford, Illinois.

NOTE - There are three slightly different source citations supplied by FamilySearch each with a different date of marriage and each giving slightly different birth years for both the bride and groom. No actual document images are furnished so it is difficult to judge which is the most correct.

I suspect that the earliest one referenced by FamilySearch, 29 Sep 1898, may actually be the date that the license was issued or the application completed. The latest one referenced, 29 Oct 1898, may be the actual date of return to the county clerk's office. And therefore I am guessing that the middle date of 13 Oct 1898 may actually be date that the wedding was performed.

General Notes:

Family info:

Was a contractor and built numerous homes in Rockford, Illinois. Lost everything in the crash of 1929. As he would build a house, then mortgage it, use the money to build another. He owed a lot on all of the houses, and everything went back to the bank. He later was a junk dealer and had a 2nd hand store in Rockford. Fathered at least 19 children, 2 with his first wife before she died in about 1912, and then at least 17 more with his second wife, 4 of whom died as infants.

The house located at 806 Elm Street in Rockford played an important part in the Holmes family history. I'm not sure if Frank built this house or if he purchased it but the 1910 US Census shows he and his first wife, Hattie, living there with the notation that the house was owned but with a mortgage.

In the 1920 US Census, Frank is still living at 806 Elm Street but now with his 2nd wife, Josephine and their growing family. Once again he notes that they own the house but still with a mortgage. The census also shows his mother, Mary Josephine Packard, living at the same address but as a separate "family" instead of just showing her as part of Frank's extended family. In addition, there were two other families also living at the same address and enumerated as separate families: John and Georgia Pratt, and Lugeborg and Eva Myers (or Nyers); both families were renters. Even Frank's mother indicated that she paid rent. I believe this address of 806 Elm Street in Rockford was probably a very large house converted into a boarding house or perhaps a small apartment building or four-plex type of house.

In the 1930 US Census, Frank and Josephine and their large family are still living at 806 Elm Street as well as two other families: Clarence and Mabel Crandall, and Lyle and Matilda Dean. Frank's mother, Mary Josephine Packard, had passed away in 1925. The census shows a grand total of 20 people residing in the house: 3 married couples and a total of 14 children with 10 of the children being Frank and Josephine's.

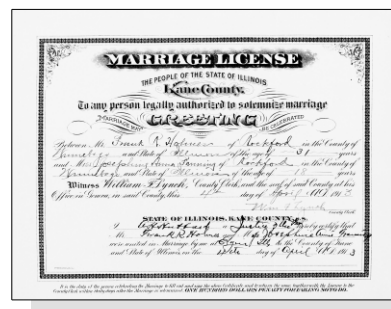

Holmes families stories tell of the effect of the several years of the slumping economy and the hardship it imposed on Frank and Josephine as they had great difficulty in even paying the taxes on the property on Elm Street and his business suffered because of the lack of any additional new construction. Mary Doris Holmes, daughter of Frank, later told her family that she could remember that there was no heat in the house and very little food. Her mother, Josephine, was "too proud of a Catholic" to receive assistance from the soup line. The children would occasionally stand out behind bakeries until employees would take pity and hand them some day old items.

By 1940, Frank and Josephine apparently lost their home on Elm Street to the banks and probably other pieces of property as well because the census shows them living with their family about a block away at 225 South Avon Street where they are paying $25 per month rent.

The old house at 806 Elm Street was torn down a number of years ago to make way for some urban renewal projects and a major re-alignment of roadways. Elm Street does not even go through anymore and is a dead-end street in this location.

Descendants of John Holmes

Despite several researchers showing the middle name of Nancy Holmes as Jane in all of the records and documents none of them show the actual name as Jane. Only her 1880 US Census record shows her with a middle initial of J when she was about 8 years old.

Her marriage record and the 1920 US Census records show a middle initial of A whereas the 1900 US Census and her gravestone shows a middle initial of N. The 1915 WW I Draft Registration card for William Butler Divine shows his wife's middle initial as N.

So where did the name Jane come from? Or was her middle initial actually N or perhaps A? I'm suspecting that it was N as it appears on the gravestone and that the other handwritten documents might be so poorly written that the letter N is confused with the letter A.

Noted events in her life were:

- She appeared on the 1880 US Census in La Plata, MO on 4 Jun 1880.⁵⁰²
- She appeared on the 1900 US Census in Newport Township, Barton, MO on 12 Jun 1900.⁵⁰³
- She appeared on the 1920 US Census in Doylesport Township, Barton, MO on 17 Jan 1920.⁵⁰⁴
- She was buried after 29 Jan 1925 in the Nigh Cemetery in Lamar, MO.

Nancy married William Butler Divine,^{503,504,506,507,508} son of James Monroe Divine and Nannie Hagins, on 20 Feb 1895 in Newport, MO.^{503,504,506} William was born on 4 Dec 1872 in Missouri,^{503,504,507,508} died on 8 Aug 1957 in Lamar, MO⁵⁰⁸ at age 84, and was buried after 8 Aug 1957 in Lamar, MO.⁵⁰⁸

Marriage Notes:

There were other William Devines living not only in Lamar, Barton County, Missouri but in the surrounding area as well. For example, there was a William and Pheoba Devine enumerated in the 1920 US Census in Lamar, Barton County, Missouri. The most noticeable difference between all the different persons would seem to be spelling of the surname, either Devine or Divine. It would appear that the one that married Nancy Holmes used the spelling of Divine.

Nancy Jane Holmes, wife of W. R. Devine

There is a marriage record for William Butler Divine and Nancy A. Holmes in Barton County, Missouri in 1895. There are 1900 and 1920 US Census records showing William B. Divine with wife, Nancy A. Divine. And finally, both of their separate gravestones show the spelling as Divine.

Then there is a strange record of a William Butler Divine appearing on the WWI Draft Registration Cards from Owyhee, Elko County, Nevada. His birth date is shown as the identical 4 Dec 1872 but the record does not indicate a birth location. His occupation is that of a farmer working for the Federal Government. His nearest relative was shown as Nancy N. Divine, presumably his wife and is the same middle initial on her gravestone back in Barton County, Missouri. Note that this card is signed and it shows his surname spelled as Divine instead of Devine. If these are two different people then its very strange that they share the same birth date and name of their wife. And if this is the same William Butler Devine, then it is strange that he traveled from Missouri to a very remote area of Nevada in 1915 when the 1900 US Census shows him living in Doylesport, Barton County, Missouri as does the 1920 US Census. Why would he travel there only to return right back a few years later? It could be possible especially because he is not found anywhere in Missouri for the 1910 US Census.

William Butler Divine - WWI Draft Registration Card

The child from this marriage was:

- + 326 M i. Butler Holmes Divine^{513,515} was born on 11 Nov 1905 in Missouri,^{513,515} died in Apr 1987⁵¹⁵ at age 81, and was buried in Apr 1987 in Lamar, MO.⁵¹⁵

General Notes:

It seems probable that Joseph was enumerated twice in the 1930 US Census. The first time was on 16 Apr 1930 within the town of Casper, WY in which he was listed as Joe P. Holmes, single, owned his home valued at $2500 and worked as a rancher. The second enumeration came the next day on 17 Apr 1930 in Election District 5 (which included the area surrounding Casper) in which he was listed as Joseph P. Holmes, divorced, owned his home valued at $100 and worked as a rancher on a stock ranch.

The two different areas, the different marital status, and the two different homes and their values make it seem as if they could be different persons. But I suspect that in the wide open ranges of Wyoming at the time, he may have owned or rented a small cabin out on the ranch in which he stayed whenever working the cattle. I cannot explain why he was listed as single on one census but divorced on the other. But each enumeration listed the birth locations of his parents and each was correctly listed as Ohio for his father and Missouri for his mother. Those birth locations were unusual when compared to all the others and for that reason, I feel confident that both enumerations were for the same person.

Noted events in his life were:

- He has alternate birth information of 21 Jun 1873.⁵¹⁶
- He appeared on the 1880 US Census in La Plata, MO on 4 Jun 1880.⁵¹⁷

1888. The only other document subsequent to that is the 1930 US Census that shows Lu Verne living in Milwaukee, Wisconsin with a wife named Myrtle who was born about 1890 in Wisconsin instead of Ohio. His gravestone shows his wife's name as Myrtle born in 1889.

It could be possible that somehow Myrtle was a nickname for Maude but that seems unlikely. That 1930 US Census does indicate that Luverne was married at age 21 and Myrtle was married at age 19. That age is correct for Lu Verne's first marriage but his 1st wife, Maude, was about 22 years old when she was married to Lu Verne, not the 19 shown on the 1930 US Census. However, Myrtle Seidel was first married to De Forest Hammond in 1908 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin when she was 19. Therefore, on the 1930 census form, those ages when married refer to their age when they were first married, not the age when they were married to their current spouse.

No record of any other marriage for Lu Verne has been found and he is not found in the 1920 US Census.

Lu Verne traveled around extensively. He was born in Washington, Illinois in 1889. By June of 1900 he moved with his parents to Dallas County, Missouri. By Apr 1910 he moved with his parents to Canton, Ohio where he was married there in Nov 1910. By June of 1917 he was living on his own and working as a machinist in Saint Paul, Minnesota. By Apr 1930 he was remarried and living in Milwaukee, Wisconsin where he died in 1939 at the age of 50.

Noted events in his life were:

- He appeared on the 1900 US Census in Grant Township, Dallas, MO on 8 Jun 1900.⁶⁴⁸
- He appeared on the 1910 US Census in Canton, OH on 20 Apr 1910.⁶⁴⁹
- His occupation on 5 Jun 1917 was a Machinist for Ford Service in Saint Paul, MN.⁶⁵⁰
- He resided at 287 South Franklin Street on 5 Jun 1917 in Saint Paul, MN.⁶⁵⁰
- On 5 Jun 1917, he registered for the World War I Draft at Saint Paul, MN.⁶⁵⁰
- He appeared on the 1930 US Census in Milwaukee, WI on 9 Apr 1930.⁶⁵¹

Lu married Maude E. Sheaffer,⁶⁵² daughter of Ephraim Sheaffer and Meranda Holtz, on 23 Nov 1910 in Stark County, OH.⁶⁵² Maude was born in Jun 1888 in Canton, OH⁶⁵² and died after 23 Nov 1910.

General Notes:

There is a record of a marriage between William C. Gantt and Sarah A. Anderson on 3 Apr 1912 in Boone, Boone County, Iowa. The document correctly lists the names of William's parents as Edmund and Frances.

Six years later, there is a 1918 World War I Draft Registration Card for William Clyde Gantt in Detroit, Michigan but it is a little suspicious if its the right person or not. It shows the complete correct name of William Clyde Gantt. It has his correct birth date. It lists a wife named Alice living back in Iowa in the general area where William grew up. It list his occupation as a cook. But what is strange is that it shows him living in Detroit, Michigan. There is no other evidence that William was ever living in Detroit even though the registration card lists a specific address in that city. If Sarah A. Anderson who was married to William Clyde Gantt in 1912 had a middle name of Alice and preferred to go by that middle name, then it would seem more positive that these were the correct persons.

About one year later, on Nov 28, 1919 in Polk County, Iowa, Alice Gantt was granted a divorce from Clyde Gantt on the grounds of willful desertion. The date of marriage was listed as Apr 1913. The name of Alice matches the name of the wife listed on the World War I Draft Registration Card. If Sarah preferred to use a middle name of Alice and if William Gantt was being called by his middle name of Clyde, then these were the correct persons.

Although pure speculation on my part, it appears to me that Sarah A. Anderson's middle name probably was Alice. Soon after the marriage, William left Alice in Iowa and went to Detroit, Michigan for unknown reasons, probably entirely abandoning the marriage. William registered for the draft in Detroit in 1918. Sarah Alice Anderson filed for divorce back in Iowa in 1919.

Sometime around 1920 William moved westward ultimately into the Los Angeles area. The 1930 US Census shows him living with a wife name Minnie who was born in Michigan. William's occupation according to the census was that of a cook, which matches what was listed on the 1918 WWI Draft Registration Card. It may be possible that William met his 2nd wife, Minnie, back in the Detroit, Michigan area where they could have been married there or after the two of them relocated to California.

No other marriage records for either of his possible two wives have been located other than the one from 1912 that lists Sarah A. Anderson in Boone, Iowa. No other census records after living with his mother in 1895 have been found for William other than the 1930 US Census record from Los Angeles, California when he was living with Minnie.

According to the death certificate, William died from nephritis complicated by acute alcoholism. It also indicates that he was buried in Hollywood Cemetery but no record has been found on Find-A-Grave.

Descendants of John Holmes

had one son, Roger Mattus.

There is a marriage record in 1934 for Mae Gladys Holmes and Thomas Mitkusevitch in neighboring Boone County. There was one daughter, Joyce Mae, that was stillborn on 11 Dec 1934.

Continuing research shows Thomas's surname of Mitkusevitch being changed either officially or un-officially to "Mattus". There was a son born named Roger Mattus probably around 1941. An email in 2017 from the son of Roger, Michael Mattus" further confirms the spelling as "Mattus".

Personal knowledge indicates that Mae was divorced from her husband, Thomas Mattus about 1958 and she remained single for the next ten years or so. She was then re-married to Larry Salivar in about 1968 but Mae died about one year later in December of 1969 and was buried in Rockford. The name on the gravestone is Mae Gladys Salivar. Unfortunately, I can find no record of this marriage which might indicate her previously married name being spelled as either Mattus or Mitkusevitch.

I suspect that Thomas was originally born under the Mitkusevitch surname thus explaining the marriage record between Gladys Holmes and Thomas Mitkusevitch in 1934. He may have changed his surname at some time after 1934 to a more American-like name such as Mattus, thus explaining the still-born daughter in 1934 of Mitkusevitch and the later birth of his son as Roger Mattus.

The death record for Edith by the state of Illinois indicates that she was buried at Graceland Cemetery in Chicago on 13 Feb 1969. But family records indicate that she was actually cremated. There will probably be researchers that will claim that she was really buried but I suspect that the Illinois form relating to the disposition of the body do not distinguish between a burial or cremation. Thus, she most likely was cremated on 13 Feb 1969 at Graceland Cemetery.

General Notes:

Mother was cremated and her ashes were sprinkled in Belmont Harbor in Chicago, IL. by my Stepdad, John Fairchild.

A little about my Mom. She was a hard worker, I have lots of good memories of her. Lets see, I remember when I was about maybe 5 years old, I went outside to play. It was a snowy day, lots of snow on the ground. She told me to not get wet. I went to play with some of my friends, we had a ball. We built dams with snow, to back up the water, and what did she say " DON'T GET WET!" Obviously I went home soaked and freezing! Guess what I had to eat for supper, Cold milk and bread in a bowl. That was my punishment! To this day, even thinking about that combination makes me sick!

While dad was in the Navy, once a week my Mom would take me to the movies. I always looked forward to that. That was OUR time together, because I also had a little sister. And in the summertime, while Mother was working, I would always meet her at lunch time at Zickers Corner Drug Store. Mother and her girlfriends would walk up there for lunch everyday. I always had a tuna salad sandwich and strawberry soda. I remember my mom getting mad at me one time, I was out playing down the street, she come after me with a little stick.... I ran all the way home ahead of her, so she wouldn't spank me.

When Dad and Mother split up, Mother moved to Chicago, IL. When she got situated, she would have my sister and I go into Chicago and spend time with her, during our school vacations, etc. And she always at least once a month would take the train out to see us, and spend a weekend with us. We sure did love her, and I miss her so much. She died at a young age, she was 51 years old.

342. Lois Claire Holmes³⁹⁹ (*Jacob Claude*²³, *Lott Leonard*²², *John F. General Notes:

For some strange reason, Lois was not listed with her parents on the 1930 US Census when she was 9 years old. However, she is found listed about 2 families distant on the census form at the Terrill and Dora Mobley residence where Lois was listed as a granddaughter. The problem is that her age is shown as 1 year 2 months instead of the expected 8 years. The birth locations for Lois' parents are correctly shown as Missouri for the father and Kansas for the mother.

There is some evidence that Dora Mobley's maiden name was Perry which was the name of Lois' grandmother, Elizabeth Perry, but this Dora's father was Thomas Perry who was not a sibling to Faith but might have been an uncle or even a cousin. As near as I can tell, Lois was not a granddaughter to Terrill and Dora Mobley but might have been some other distant relative.

So it remains a mystery as to why Lois Holmes was being cared for by the Mobley family who already had 2 children of their own as well as another 2 year old grandson named Floyd Mobley living with them.

NOTE - The birth certificate seems to indicate a birth location and residence of the parents in Manly, Iowa which is just over the border of Cerro Gordo County into Worth County, Iowa. Therefore the correct location should have been listed as Manly, Worth County, Iowa instead of Lime Township, Cerro Gordo County, Iowa. It also appears that the document was incorrectly filed with the clerk of Cerro County, Iowa because of the wrong township and county names entered on the document.

"United States Social Security Death Index," database, FamilySearch (<https://familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:JTVZ-9MJ> : 20 May 2014), William D Stonewall, 07 Jul 2009; citing U.S. Social Security Administration, Death Master File, database (Alexandria, Virginia: National Technical Information Service, ongoing).

General Notes:

There is a ship's passenger list showing William traveling from Bremerhaven, Germany to New York on 26 Dec 1948 aboard the SS "Ernie Pyle". Traveling with William was his wife, Rosel Stonewall, and a son named William Maring, either a biological son born illegitimately in Germany or possibly a stepson. The wife and the son have German nationality according to the passenger list so it is possible that William traveled to Germany to bring home his German born wife and stepson. Their home address was 121 South 2nd Street in Rockford, Illinois.

An updated copy of the list presented at dockside, eliminated William, his wife and son indicating that they did no embark.

Carol worked at various jobs after high school such as secretarial duties at Rogers and Clark Manufacturing, WREX-TV, and other places. Brian worked at Sundstrand Aviation in Rockford for several years after they were married.

The wedding ceremony was performed at "The Church by the Side of the Road" in Rockton, Illinois which is a small town located about 10-15 miles north of Rockford. The main and only attraction in Rockton was the fact that is was the location of a motel resort, The Wagon Wheel Lodge. It sported a large ice rink and for the Sunday services for the guests, there was the Church By The Side Of The Road. The minister of the church, Rev. John Walker, was actually a retired minister from another area. Inside the church were several canaries in bird cages along each side. Whenever the organist would start up a tune, the canaries would join right in.

The wedding ceremony was performed at 2:00 PM in the afternoon and a large reception was held at 6:00 PM in the rented hall of the Machinist Lodge in Rockford. While they were in the reception hall that evening, someone broke into their parked car and had stolen several suitcases with all of Carol's clothes that she had packed for her honeymoon. For the honeymoon, they traveled by car to Florida including Cape Canaveral and the Fort Lauderdale areas.

Returning from their honeymoon in Florida, around Jan 1968, they first lived in a rented house on Ridge Avenue in
