General Notes:

A few researchers show this child as being born in 1734 but apparently died before 1736. When a second son was born on 27 Jun 1736, the parents supposedly gave the second child the same name of James. Unfortunately no birth records for the second James have yet been found. But there are Christening records dated 27 June 1736 which might support the second James. It seems odd that both children were Christened on the same exact calendar day of the month of June only 2 years apart.

It may be possible that there was only one James Renton, born either in 1734 or 1736. The fact that there is a Christening record dated 17 Mar 1734 highly supports the birth of at least one James Renton in 1734.

"Scotland Marriages, 1561-1910," database, FamilySearch (<https://familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:XTGV-SJK : 10 February 2018>), Andrew Renton and Agnes Wallace, 19 Jul 1822; citing Innerwick,East Lothian,Scotland, index based upon data collected by the Genealogical Society of Utah, Salt Lake City; FHL microfilm 1,067,850.

The Scottish census records from 1841 and 1851 may be somewhat spotty but there remain some questions about the names of missing family members from these census records. On the 1851 Scotland Census, there is no mention of William, Janet, or Andrew.

William would have been about 28 years old for the 1851 Scotland Census and could possibly have been living by himself. He was not married until 1861 and his 1900 US Census record indicates that he supposedly immigrated in 1850. That date is not confirmed and it would have been before his parents immigrated in 1851. He appears back with his father in the 1860 US Census in Michigan. I doubt that he came to the US before his parents so I suspect that he immigrated into the US shortly after his parents in 1851.

Andrew was the first of his family to come to the US. All others, including his brothers, remained in Scotland. He and most of his family sailed from Glasgow to New York. On 14 Jul 1851, the SS Harmonia entered New York harbor sailing from Glasgow. Onboard were Andrew and his wife Agnes as well as 6 of their children which included Janet (Jessie), Marion, Andrew Jr., James, John, and George with his wife Agnes and their young daughter, Agnes. Andrew's occupation was listed as farmer.

The shipmaster's list showed the following:

Andrew Renton, Male, 60, Farmer
Agnes Renton, Female, 48 (wife)
Jessie Renton, Female, 20 (daughter)
Marion Renton, Female, 18 (daughter)
Andrew Renton, Male, 15 (son)
James Renton, Male, 14 (son)
John Renton, Male, 8 (son)
George Renton, Male, 25 (married son)

- He appeared on the 1851 Scotland Census in Spott, East Lothian, Scotland on 30 Mar 1851.

81

- He immigrated onboard the ship Harmonia arriving on 14 Jul 1851 at New York, NY.

84

- He appeared on the 1860 US Census in Huron Township, Wayne, MI on 22 Jun 1860.⁸⁵

George married Agnes^{85,86,87,88} about 1847.^{86,87} Agnes was born in 1824 in Cockburnspath, Berwickshire, SCOTLAND^{85,86,87,88} and died after 1 Jun 1880.

Marriage Notes:

George and Agnes were marriage about 1847 in Scotland. In 1851, George, Agnes and their one daughter immigrated to the US arriving with George's parents on 14 Jul 1851 in New York City. While living in New York, they had one more daughter and one son born there in New York. Sometime between 1856 and 1860, George and his family traveled once again with his parents to Wayne County, Michigan where they all appeared on the 1860 US Census there. Nearly all of the other family members stayed in the Wayne County, Michigan area for their entire lives.

In spite of the family appearing in 1860 in Wayne County, Michigan, nothing else is known about the parents or their two daughters. The son ended up in Monroe County, Michigan.

There are records of a George Renton and wife, Agnes Hamilton who were living in Ash Township of Monroe County, Michigan which was just to the south of Wayne County. What is unique about that is that the son of George Renton and Agnes (?), Andrew Renton, was married to Mary Reinhart and they were living in Ash Township of Monroe County since 1880. This would certainly seem like they were the same couple except for a few points. The first is a death record for a daughter of the George Renton living in Monroe County indicates that he had a daughter named Nancy who was born on 15 Feb 1848 in Scotland. That birth date would seem to conflict with the birth date of a daughter born in 1848 in Scotland named Agnes. That daughter, Agnes, was named on the passenger ship's list while a daughter named Nancy was not listed.

There are additional records of another daughter named Marian that was born on 31 May 1861 in Flat Rock, Wayne County, Michigan and who died in 1932 in Waukegan, Lake County, Illinois. Her parents were named as George Renton and Agnes Hamilton.

It would be so easy to assign the name of Hamilton as a surname to George's wife based on these records and the fact that their son moved to Monroe County but the conflict with the birth year and the name of a daughter named Nancy not being shown on the ship's passenger list makes that too much to assume to be true without additional documentation.

In 1880 Robert and Elizabeth lived in Michigan next to his brother, John.

The passenger list from 1869 shows Elizabeth and most of the children arriving in New York City aboard the ship USS James Foster Jr. For some reason, the name of the father, Robert Renton, was not included so it must be assumed that he arrived earlier.

The emigrant sailing ship, James Foster Jr, had a notorious reputation for starvation of the passengers and mistreatment by the crew. See a New York Times article published 23 Mar 1869 at <https://www.nytimes.com/1869/03/23/archives/the-emigrant-ship-james-foster-jr.html>.

The true names and ages of their children seem to be a little bit confused especially the younger ones and their birth dates.

For example, on the passenger ship manifest in 1869, it shows Elizabeth arriving with 7 children. Absent from this voyage are the husband, who apparently arrived a few years earlier, James Blackie Renton who is known to have died earlier in Scotland, Margaret Weir Renton, whose death date is unknown and may have also died earlier in Scotland, and finally Henry Shield Renton, whose death date is unknown and may have also died earlier in Scotland.

The ages of the children on the ship's manifest are also different than what is believed to be their true age. For example, Andrew was correctly listed as 18 years old but Alex was believed to be 17 but was listed as only 15. Agnes was 14 and was correctly listed as 14 at the time of the ship's departure. Helen was listed as "Hellen", was 12 years old, and was correctly listed as 12. Robert was believed to be 10 years old but was listed as only 7. William was 4 years old but listed as only 3. John was 3 years old but listed as only an infant.

Marriage Notes:

In the 1900 US Census, Janette indicated that she had a total of 10 children with 7 still alive. Myself and other researchers can account for only 9 children including the female born in 1876 that lived only 3 months.

This is further complicated by the 1920 US Census in which Andrew and Janette are living with their widowed son-in-law, Archibald Smock, but to which daughter was this Archibald Smock married? Of the 7 known daughters, the fate of 4 of them is known: Nettie married George Smock in 1897, the female infant died in 1876, Levora married Sidney Hosmer in 1902, and Carrie married George Smock in 1921 who must have been divorced from Nettie by this time. Sarah and Jane were still living with their parents in the 1880 census while the younger sister Alice was living in a boarding house in Detroit and working as a dressmaker. What happened to any one of those 3 after the 1880 census is unknown.

That means that the wife of Archibald Smock could have been Sarah or Jane Renton, or she could have also been the 10th child of whom we know nothing. Because the parents ending up living with Archibald, I am more tempted to believe that he married either Sarah or Jane, instead of Alice who had moved to Detroit and was living on her own. The marriage may not have lasted long until the wife died because apparently there are no children born to this marriage. More research is needed.

UPDATE, May 2012:

A statement by Janette on the 1900 US Census that she had 10 children may be misleading or not factual. Recently discovered gravestones at the Otisville Cemetery for three of her children now push that possible total names to 11. Perhaps Janette was not including the female infant who was born in 1876. Perhaps this child was stillborn and Janette was not considering this as one of her children. Another alternate idea is that this un-named female may actually be the same one buried with the gravestone marked as Ellen Renton which has no year of birth or death. In that case, the total would be the 10 children as stated by Janette.

"Michigan Marriages, 1868-1925," database with images, FamilySearch (https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:NQ3D-M8D : 9 November 2020), Andrew T. Renton and Minnie Daugherty, 16 Oct 1895; citing Marriage, Van Buren, Wayne, Michigan, , Citing Secretary of State, Department of Vital Records, Lansing; FHL microfilm 4207884.

In 1967, Brian Lightfoot married Carol Renton in Rockford, Illinois and at that time it was thought that there was no connection between the Lightfoot and Renton family lines. The 1940 US Census shows that Andrew and Mary Renton were living next door to Louis and Grace Lightfoot in Wayne County, Michigan. Andrew Renton was a 1st cousin to Carol. Louis Lightfoot was a 3rd cousin to Brian. Both of the families from 1940 had only daughters living next to each other so there were no previous marriages between the Rentons and the Lightfoots. How unusual that the family lines happened to be so close to each other over 25 years before Brian and Carol ever met and were married.

Nankin Township, Michigan, is a former township of Wayne County in the U.S. state of Michigan.

The township was first organized in 1827 as "Bucklin Township" and included what is now the cities of Westland, Livonia, Garden City, Inkster, Wayne, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights and Redford Township. In 1829, Bucklin Township was divided into Lima and Pekin Township. Due to a naming conflict under postal regulations at that time, Lima was soon renamed as "Nankin", after the Chinese city Nanking, in line with its neighbors Pekin, named after Peking, and Canton Township, named after Canton.

In 1835, Livonia Township (now the city of Livonia) was split off from Nankin. Redford and Dearborn were subsequently set off as separate townships. There was a post office called East Nankin beginning in 1857.

Garden City, Inkster, and Wayne then incorporated from land either partially or wholly within Nankin Township. The remainder of the township incorporated as the city of Westland, effective May 16, 1966. The city took its name from a mall and was the fourth largest city in Wayne County when it incorporated.

General Notes:

It appears that Alexander had no children with his first wife, Margaret A. Johnson, and that his second wife, Julia A. Carson, brought three of her own children from her first marriage and some additional grandchildren into the marriage with Alexander. He had no children with his second wife either.

 Stranglely, his name appears in the marriage register with his 2nd wife as "Elic J. A. Renton". Perhaps the clerk entering the data on the forms may have heard his name as "Alec" but with a more pronounced "A" due to his Scottish accent thus making sound similar to "Elic". I have no idea where the J. A. initials could have come from.

Noted events in his life were:

- He has alternate birth date of 27 Jan 1851 and a birth location of Haddington, East Lothian, Scotland.

In the 1920 US Census, Alexander was living with married brother, John, and his family. His marital status was still marked as married. There is a record for a Julia A. Renton, born about 1862 in Michigan, living in Wayne County, Michigan with Charles W. Cassidy and wife Mira. Julia's relationship was marked as mother-in-law but I have no record of a daughter named Mira who was born about 1892. The closest would have been Matilda Savage who was born about 1888 which is very close to the correct age but how does one get Mira out of Matilda? Julia's marital status was also marked as married so if this was the correct Julia, then I suspect the couple was experiencing marital problems

Marriage Notes:

No marriage document has yet been found but their son, Robert, indicates on various documents that he was born in 1878 in Illinois, probably in Chebanse County. This would mean that George and Agnes were probably married some time around 1877 but the location is not known even though she was from the Wayne County, Michigan area.

Agnes Aitken Renton - Death Register

Assuming they were married about 1877, they should be found somewhere in the 1880 US Census but I have yet to find any record that is definitely them. The closest is an 1880 record from Van Buren Township, Wayne County, Michigan. This would make sense because that is exactly where Agnes was living in 1870. But there are some unknown names found on the record as well as a few unexplainable errors which may mean this record could be for a different family.

John Manzer..Other..2m..MI..born in Apr
Alonzo Manzer..Brother..40..NY

George did later report on the 1900 US Census that he was born in New York so this could probably be him as well as the brother, Alonzo, who was living with them.

If this is the correct Agnes, the her age should have been about 25 instead of the 30 that appears on this record. Perhaps she wanted her age to seem to be more closely aligned with the older husband.

The next two sons, Frank and Melvin, are problematic because if George and Agnes were not married until about 1877, then these two sons could not be Agnes'. Perhaps George was previously married and these 2 sons are from his 1st wife.

The son Robert appears with an age of 2 which would be correct if he was born about 1878. But according to his WWI and WWII Draft registration cards and future census records, he was born in Illinois instead of Michigan as shown on this 1880 record.

And finally, another previously unknown son, John, born in Apr 1880 with George and Agnes as the parents.

But the biggest problem concerns Agnes and her birth location reported as Connecticut instead of the expected Scotland. She even reported that both of her parents were born in New York instead of Scotland. I can understand the parents' birth locations being misreported due to an enumerator error in continuing the same locations as given for George but how does one overlook Agnes' birth location being stated as Connecticut?

What is interesting is that the name of Robert Laurence Renton who is believed to have been born in 1892 is not included with the family. Instead there is the name of Florence Renton, born about 1892. It is known that Robert L. Renton lived well into his adulthood but if the name of Florence indicates that she was the same age, then either they were twins, or contrary to various source citations, Robert was born much later, or even perhaps, Robert belonged to a different family.

"Scotland, Births and Baptisms, 1564-1950," index, FamilySearch (<https://familysearch.org/pal:/MM9.1.1/FQSP-5FL> : accessed 09 Aug 2013), Robert Renton in entry for Margaret Weir Renton, 16 Jun 1863.

General Notes:

There is one strange 1870 US Census listing for a William Renton, age 4, and a female listed as Marg J. Pheir, age 9, in the same Van Buren Township as the rest of his family. However, it must have been some distance away as the parent's house was listed as Page 45 while these two children were found on Page 9. Both census pages show Bellville as the Post Office but no other locations are shown. The census for the parents was conducted on 16 June 1870 while the strange census entry for the 2 children was conducted on 3 Jun 1870. The enumeration of the 2 children are entered as is there was no adult present in the household, just the two young children. I am at a loss to explain why they were entered on the form in this manner.

NOTE - This is believed to be the correct William Renton because of the accurate birth date and birth location. But the name of the father was given as William Renton instead of the expected Robert Renton and the name of the mother was given as Mary Wier instead of the expected Elizabeth Weir. I don't have to actual death image to know who the informant was but their information was close but not totally accurate.

General Notes:

William was not found with his family for the 1870 US Census when he would have been about 5 years old. This is strange because all of the other children with the exception of his sister are listed including one even younger than William. None of his siblings were married so he could not have been living with one of them for the 1870 US Census.

However, there is one strange 1870 US Census listing for a William Renton, age 4, and a female listed as Marg J. Pheir, age 9, in the same Van Buren Township as the rest of his family. (blank line for Head of Household)

Marg J. Pheir..9..CAN

William Renton..4..SCOT

But even this listing on page 9 is very strange in that the two children are seemingly shown all by themselves with no parents or adult guardians. In dwelling 70 listed above their names, there are two families: Charles Carrington and his family shown as family 76 and then family 77, Charles Sayre, or perhaps spelled as Saip, along with his wife Ellen. The exact spelling of the surname is difficult to read. The enumerator skipped several lines showing the next dwellings 71 and 72 with just a dashed line through the family number area which would normally indicate a vacant dwelling. The names of William Renton and Marg J. Pheir appear on the line following the supposedly vacant dwelling 72.

I'm not sure what to make of this enumeration. William and the other young girl, Marg Pheir, surely both were too young to have been staying there by themselves. Their names are at the bottom of the page and the next page starts with a new dwelling and new family. Did the enumerator mean to show that they were being cared for by Charles Sayre, the young husband and his wife which were listed four lines above their names? Or did the enumerator just forget to list the name of the adults that were caring for the two young children?

It is my belief that this strange census record for the 2 children on page 9 are William J. Renton and Margaret Weir Renton. The age for William is nearly correct at 4 instead of 5 while Marg's age was shown as 9 instead of the expected 6. Her birth location was shown as Canada instead of Scotland. But who gave this information to the census enumerator? Certainly not the 4 and 6 year old children. I suspect the enumerator did not properly finish the household and came back 13 days later and listed the remaining family members to include the parents on a different page. I cannot explain why Margaret Weir Renton was listed as Marg J. Pheir nor why her birth location was incorrectly given as Canada.

William apparently had three different wives. His first was Harriet "Hattie" Marvin, whom he married in 1889 in Michigan and they moved to Seneca Township, McHenry County, Illinois. They divorced sometime between 1903 and 1908 with William then returning to Michigan. All of their children remained with the mother, Hattie, who was remarried to Charles Puttman and they lived in Harvard, McHenry County, Illinois.

William was eventually remarried to May Richards in 1908 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. On the 1910 US Census, both indicated that this was their first marriage which for May Richards was true but for William, it was his second marriage.

Around 1920, William and May divorced and in 1923, William was remarried for a third time to Grace Conkey but I believe that Conkey may not have been her maiden name. The marriage license shows that her mother's name was Jennie Wood but even she herself also might have been remarried. Her father's name was given on the license only as Robert with no surname.

William John Renton was born in Edinburgh Parish, Edinburgh, Midlothian, SCOTLAND in 1865. At the age of about 4, he was joined with his mother and six other siblings to emigrate to the United States aboard the sailing ship John Foster Jr. They arrived in New York City on 21 Sep 1869 where they were soon joined by the father, Robert Renton, who evidently had immigrated a year or so earlier.

The family quickly moved to Wayne County, Michigan where they all appeared in the 1870 US Census. About one year after his mother died in 1888, William was married to his first wife, Harriett A. Marvin in Wayne County, Michigan. His father died several years later in 1896 and by 1900 he had headed west where William and his family of 4 children are found living in McHenry County, Illinois. William fathered 5 children with his first wife until they were divorced sometime around 1903.

By 1908 William had moved back to the Ann Arbor area in Michigan where he was married to his second wife, May Adelaide Richards, on 23 Jun 1908. They had one daughter, Eleanor May Renton, born 4 Mar 1910 in Wayne County, Michigan. William and his second wife are found in the 1910 and 1920 US Census living in Wayne County, Michigan.

Descendants of William Renton

By 1923, William was divorced from his second wife and at the age of 58 was remarried on 24 Dec 1923 in Ann Arbor, Michigan to his third wife, Grace E. Barber, who was 16 years younger than William. Grace had been previously married at the age of 15 to Lorenzo Jake Conkey and had three children from him. William and Grace are found in the 1930 and 1940 US Census living in Calhoun County, Michigan and Washtenaw County, Michigan respectively. Some of Grace's supposed grandchildren are shown with them on those census records but in truth they are nieces of Grace and the father to those children was her brother, Guy Walter Conkey. William and Grace had no children of their own.

William died on 30 Mar 1946 in Albion, Calhoun County, Michigan and was buried in the local Riverside Cemetery. There is no visible gravestone.

Less than six months after the death of her second husband, Grace E. Barber at the age of 66 was remarried to Albert Wodtke on 28 Sep 1946. She died 2 Jan 1950 in Albion, Calhoun County, Michigan and is buried in the local Riverside Cemetery.

Renton and Grace Conkey, 24 Dec 1923; citing Ann Arbor, Washtenaw, Michigan, v 9 rn 645, Department of Vital Records, Lansing; FHL microfilm 2,342,758.

William John Renton was born in Edinburgh Parish, Edinburgh, Midlothian, SCOTLAND in 1865. At the age of about 4, he was joined with his mother and six other siblings to emigrate to the United States aboard the sailing ship John Foster Jr. The arrived in New York City on 21 Sep 1869 where they were soon joined by the father who evidently had immigrated a year or so earlier.

The family quickly moved to Wayne County, Michigan where they all appeared in the 1870 US Census. About one year after his mother died in 1888, William was married to his first wife, Harriett A. Marvin in Wayne County, Michigan. His father died several years later in 1896 and by 1900 he had headed west where William and his family of 4 children are found living in McHenry County, Illinois. William fathered 5 children with his first wife until they were divorced sometime around 1903.

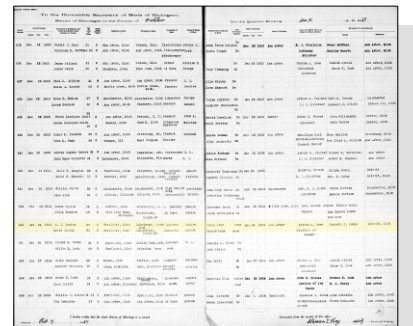

By 1908 William had moved back to the Ann Arbor area in Michigan where he was married to his second wife, May Adelaide Richards, on 23 Jun 1908. They had one daughter, Eleanor May Renton, born 4 Mar 1910 in Wayne County, Michigan. William and his second wife are found in the 1910 and 1920 US Census living in Wayne County, Michigan.

By 1923, William was divorced from his second wife and at the age of 58 was remarried on 24 Dec 1923 in Ann Arbor, Michigan to his third wife, Grace E. Barber, who was 16 years younger than William. Grace had been previously married at the age of 15 to Lorenzo Jake Conkey and had three children from him. William and Grace are found in the 1930 and 1940 US Census living in Calhoun County, Michigan and Washtenaw County, Michigan respectively. Some of Grace's supposed grandchildren are shown with them on those census records but in truth they are nieces of Grace and the father to those children was her brother, Guy Walter Conkey. William and Grace had no children of their own.

William died on 30 Mar 1946 in Albion, Calhoun County, Michigan and was buried in the local Riverside Cemetery. There is no visible gravestone.

Grace E. Barber was apparently remarried once again to Woodtke. She died 2 Jan 1950 in Albion, Calhoun County, Michigan.

Neither William, Virginia, nor their two children are found in the 1910 US Census. The 1920 US Census shows the couple living in California and there is another census record for one of their sons who is married, also living in California, and has a son of his own who was born in 1919 in California. So sometime between 1900 and 1919, they must have made the move from Michigan to the Los Angeles area in California. There is no record of the oldest son, Walter, other than the 1900 US Census in Michigan.

General Notes:

Stephen's age on all but his first census in 1870 report his age one year younger than his true age thus making it appear that his birth year was 1870 instead of 1869. The actual birth register from Wayne County, Michigan is a little confusing but his age on the 1870 US Census which was conducted in June 1870 gave his age at that time as 10 months which confirms his actual birth date of 11 Aug 1869 and not 1870. For some reason, he must have been lead to believe that he was born in 1870.

Noted events in his life were:

- Birth Image: 11 Aug 1869, in Van Buren Township, Wayne County, MI.
- He appeared on the 1870 US Census in Van Buren Township, Wayne County, MI on 10 Jun 1870.⁸⁷⁰

- His occupation on 25 Jun 1894 was a Clerk in Detroit, MI.⁸⁷²
- He resided in Detroit, MI on 25 Jun 1894.⁸⁷²
- He appeared on the 1900 US Census in Detroit, MI on 9 Jun 1900.⁸⁷³
- He appeared on the 1910 US Census in Detroit, MI on 30 Apr 1910.⁸⁷⁴

Marriage Notes: History of Seaham Harbour, Durham, ENGLAND, UNITED KINGDOM

Until the early years of the 19th century Seaham was a small rural, agricultural farming community whose only claim to fame was that the local landowner's daughter, Anne Isabella Milbanke, was married at Seaham Hall to Lord Byron on 2 January 1815. Byron began writing his Hebrew Melodies at Seaham and they were published in April 1815. It would seem that Byron was bored in wintry Seaham, though the sea enthralled him. As he wrote in a letter to a friend: "Upon this dreary coast we have nothing but county meetings and shipwrecks; and I have this day dined upon fish, which probably dined upon the crews of several colliers lost in the late gales. But I saw the sea once more in all the glories of surf and foam."

The marriage was short-lived, but long enough to have been a drain on the Milbanke estate. The area's fortunes changed when the Milbankes sold out to 3rd Marquess of Londonderry, who built a harbour in 1828 to facilitate transport of goods from the industries locally encouraged (the first coal mine was begun in 1845). However, this harbour later proved inadequate to deal with the millions of tonnes of coal and 6th Marquess commissioned engineers Patrick Meik and Charles Meik to reclaim land and extend and deepen the dock. It was officially opened in 1905. The harbour is of particular interest because it consists of a series of interconnecting locks rather than the more typical two wall construction.

In 1928 production started at the last town colliery to be opened, Vane Tempest. By 1992, however, all three pits (Dawdon Colliery, Vane Tempest Colliery and Seaham Colliery - known locally as "the Knack") had closed, a process accelerated by the UK miners' strike (1984-1985) and cheap coal imports from Eastern Europe. The pit closures have hit the local economy extremely hard, and Seaham sank into a depressed state in the 1980s and 1990s.

Many local families were affected by the tragic loss of eight men and one boy in the 'Seaham Lifeboat Disaster', when the RNLI lifeboat, the George Elmy, sank on 17 November 1962. To commemorate the event, the new coast road was named George Elmy Lifeboat Way.

On May 10, 1916, Nellie Renton was married to Fronz D. Sutherland of Carleton, one of Charles H. and Mary (Bonker) Sutherland's four sons. The marriage took place in Pontiac, Michigan.

They began married life in Carleton where Mr. Sutherland was a railroad operator, as was his father before him. He had been an apprentice blacksmith in the George Egle shop for a short time before becoming a railroad employee.

Fronz and Nellie Sutherland remained in Carleton less than a year, then moved to Holly, Mich., where they lived for two years. From there they went to Saginaw, where Mr. Sutherland was employed by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad as an operator until shortly before his death in 1957.

Mrs. Sutherland returned to southeastern Michigan in 1961, living in Monroe for two years, then moving to Carleton in 1963 where she made her home on N. Matthews Street, until entering the residential Rivergate Terrace in Nov. of 1981.

Surviving are her two sons, Douglas of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Harry of Carleton; five grandchildren, Penny of Dyer, Tenn., Douglas of Louisville, Ky., Thomas of Chelsea and Russell and Dan of Carleton. There are also eight great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by two brothers.

Palbearers were grandsons Thomas, Russell, Dan and Douglas Sutherland, Dwight Baker and Wayne Southward.

General Notes:

His birth registration from Washtenaw County, Michigan and the first few census records show his name only as Laurence Renton. Beginning with his WWI Draft Registration Cards and subsequent census records, his name was shown as Robert Laurence Renton.

The adjoining page of the 1891 Washtenaw County Birth register gives the names of the parents of each birth but in the case of (Robert) Laurence Renton, there is a small folded piece of paper that only says "Filed Sep 17 1941". When microfilmed, this folded piece of paper was not opened up. Typically these are birth amendments or legal corrections to the original entry. In this case, I suspect that he may have had his name legally changed to add the Robert at the front.

Also somewhat confusing is the actual date of his birth. The image of the Washtenaw County Birth Register clearly shows Laurence Renton with a birth date of 26 Dec 1891. Almost all of his adult life, he provided his birth date as 26 Jan 1892. I have no reason why he never knew his birth date.

Renton, 9 Nov 1921; citing Marriage, Ypsilanti, Washtenaw, Michigan, , Citing Secretary of State, Department of Vital Records, Lansing; FHL microfilm 4032395.

Mary's mother became a widow in 1936 and it appears that she moved in with her family. Sometime between 1936 and 1940, the extended family moved to Florida where they all appeared in the 1940 US Census in Lake Worth. By 1957, her elderly mother, Mary Warner-Renton, had returned back to Michigan where she died and was buried near her husband. I do not know if Earl and Mary Willoughby remained in Florida or if they also returned to Michigan.

Noted events in their marriage were:

General Notes:

Although her gravestone indicates a birth year of 1894, the 1900 US Census indicates Apr 1893.

But the next census in 1910 is somewhat inconclusive about her birth year as it shows only an age of 16 which normally would mean that she was born AFTER 15 Apr 1893 and would therefore result in an age of 16 as reported on the census.

If the age on the census of 16 was accurate, then that would mean that her birth date was anytime after 15 Apr 1893 all the way through 15 Apr 1894.

Renton, 12 Jul 1915; citing Marriage, Ypsilanti, Washtenaw, Michigan, , Citing Secretary of State, Department of Vital Records, Lansing; FHL microfilm 4209294.

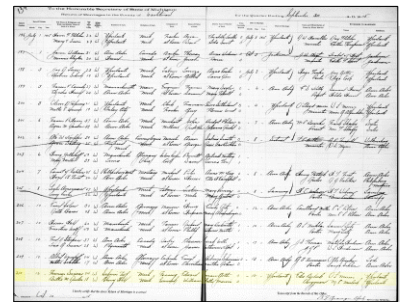

The marriage location of Ypsilanti, Michigan is surprising because following the divorce of her parents sometime between 1900 and 1908, her father returned to Michigan while supposedly all of the children remained with the mother in McHenry County, Illinois. This marriage location suggest that Bertha may have at some time after the 1910 US Census gone to live with or near or father in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

NOTE - Bertha's marriage record to Ernest Troupe suggests that her married name at the time was Burch, so then she must have had a second husband named Burch following her first marriage to Francis Dixon. This record would seem to be her third marriage in spite of it indicating that it is only the 2nd marriage for Bertha. It does provide the correct age for Bertha, her correct birth location, and the correct names of her parents. The location of Boone County, Illinois is only a few miles away from where Bertha's mother was living in McHenry County, Illinois.

Dewey Clarence Renton^{581,582,583,584,585,586} (*William John*⁷, *Robert*⁶, *Andrew*⁵, *William*⁴, *James*³, *William*², *William*¹) was born on 26 Jun 1899 in Illinois,^{581,582,583,585,586} died on 24 Apr 1955 in Rockford, IL⁵⁸⁷ at age 55, and was buried on 27 Apr 1955 in Rockford, IL.^{587,588} The cause of his death was Cancer of the intestines.

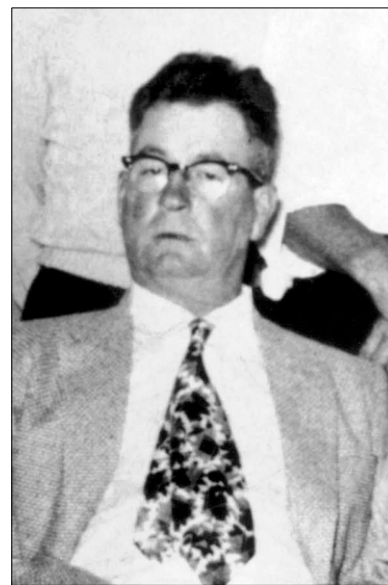

Death Notes:

The death certificate shows the birth location as "Michigan" however it appears that "Illinois" was originally entered and as evidenced by a different looking type font, the word "Michigan" replaced it. Both the 1900 and 1930 Census records indicate that Dewey was born in Illinois and that his mother was born in Michigan.

Dewey was first diagnosed with cancer following an apparent exploratory surgery on 21 April 1954. One year later he was hospitalized in Rockford Memorial Hospital for one month until his death on 24 April 1955 exactly one year and three days later.

General Notes:

Dewey Renton started his own plumbing business in Rockford and upon his death, his four sons took over the business calling it Renton Brothers Plumbing. His son, Jerry Renton, spent time in the military and upon his discharge moved to California so he had very little to do with the plumbing business. Supposedly both Roger and John were not satisfied with the third brother, Don's workmanship and ethics in the business so Roger and John both asked Don to leave the business. Donald Renton's share was bought out by both Roger and John leaving only those two sons to run the business. Don then entered into real estate and continued in that line of business for the rest of his life. Upon Roger's death in 1972, John kept running the business with the assistance of his sons but the business was never as much as it once was. In 2002, the building still stands but is badly deteriorated on a run-down abandoned lot in west Rockford. (Brian L. Lightfoot)

There are several birth registers for Wayne County, Michigan that are "summarized reports of births" which show George's birth date as 17 Aug 1894. However, the main birth register shows his birth date as 17 May 1894.

The 1900 US Census reports "May 1894", his World War II Draft Registration Card upon which he provided a birth date of 17 May 1894, and the Social Security Death Index which shows a birth date of 17 May 1894 which presumably was supplied by George when he first applied.

"Indiana Marriages, 1811-2007," database with images, FamilySearch (<https://familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:XXBR-4TG> : 10 December 2017), Levora Renton in entry for Howard Edwin Hosmer and Irma Maude Renton, 12 May 1932; citing Elkhart, Indiana, United States, Marriage Registration, Indiana Commission on Public Records, Indianapolis; FHL microfilm 004540496.

NOTE - One would think that some red flags would be waved on this marriage contract when Howard's mother's surname was Renton and the bride's name was also Renton. Irma was actually a 2nd cousin once removed to Howard. The license application form contains the question "Is the male/female contracting party of nearer blood kin to the female/male contracting party than second cousin? Both Howard and Irma replied "No". The question actually makes the marriage of 2nd cousins permissible.

Based on the obituary for Howard it seems he was remarried at some time to a 2nd wife named Annabelle. No information about his 1st wife, Irma Renton.

NOTE - One would think that some red flags would be waved on this marriage contract when Howard's mother's surname was Renton and the bride's name was also Renton. Irma was actually a 2nd cousin once removed to Howard. The license application form contains the question "Is the male/female contracting party of nearer blood kin to the female/male contracting party than second cousin? Both Howard and Irma replied "No". The question actually makes the marriage of 2nd cousins permissible.

Based on the obituary for Howard it seems he was remarried at some time to a 2nd wife named Annabelle. No information about his 1st wife, Irma Renton.

Joan was born August 19, 1933 in Ypsilanti, Michigan, the daughter of Earl and Mary (Renton) Willoughby. After graduating from Indiana University in Indiana in 1955, she got married to Nicolas Mihailoff-Shelly in the spring of 1955 and she traveled the world together until her first born, Peter Boyd was born in Vienna, Austria in 1964. Then as they began to settle in the U.S. her daughter, Larissa Nicole was born in Elkhart Indiana then along came her baby boy, Andrew Bruce. She was a fabulous and wonderful housewife and mom who loved to take care of her family. She worked at Stretch n Sew in Mishawaka, Ind. as a store manager. She was a marvelous and exceptionally talented seamstress. There was nothing she couldn't make or put together. She made beautiful clothing for her kids and grandkids growing up. She then moved to Ann Arbor, Michigan to start a new life for herself with her family in 1983. She enjoyed a wonderful job with MR-Mathematical Reviews with U of M for the next 20 years. In 1988, she moved out to the city of Saline, Michigan and enjoy a wonderful condo where she could plant her flowers and watch her grandkids swim in the pool in the summertimes when they came to visit. She lived there until 2013. From there she moved to Grand Rapids, Michigan to be closer to her daughter and her grandkids. She loved volunteering with Michigan Theater downtown as an usher for many years. She also volunteered with the Saline library and their Garden club for several years. Upon her retirement in 2007, she then made new friends with the Saline Senior Center and enjoyed many fun times with her friends playing Mahjong and card games. She loved her some Red Lobster, and going out to eat with her friends in the area. She loved and enjoyed every minute she could get with her grandkids. They were the apple of her eye and brought her lots of joy, laughter and happiness.

Survivors include her daughter Larissa (Brian) Cassell, grandchildren Jessica Shelly, Valerie Marie Cassell, Joshua Ishmael Cassell, and Ella Louise Shelly, and her daughter-in-law Diane Shelly.

General Notes:

One of Roger's favorite pastimes was riding motorcycles. He was one of the first people to receive one of the new Moto-Guzzi V-twin motorcycles and he liked it because of its larger size in comparison to the smaller Japanese motorcycles so common during those years. He had a hard time finding a motorcycle helmet to fit his large head and he ended up splitting two helmets and fabricating them together to make one large helmet.

Roger and his brother John both ran Renton Brothers Plumbing in Rockford, Illinois. Roger died an early death at the age of 48 in 1972. Autopsies were not required in Illinois at the time but it is believed that a stroke was the likely cause of death. He was a large man but only slightly overweight. He had been undergoing treatment for high blood

John Renton

General Notes:

Dewey Renton started his own plumbing business called Renton and Sons in Rockford. Upon his death, his 4 sons took over the business calling it Renton Brothers Plumbing. Jerry Renton spent time in the military and upon his discharge moved to California so he had very little to do with the plumbing business. Donald Renton's share was bought out by both Roger and John leaving only those two sons to run the business. Supposedly both Roger and John were not satisfied with Don's workmanship and ethics in his plumbing so Roger and John both asked Don to leave the business. Don then entered into real estate and continued in that line of business for the rest of his life. Upon Roger's death in 1972, John kept running the business with the assistance of his sons but the business was never as much as it once was. In 2002, the building still stands but is badly deteriorated on a run down abandoned lot in west Rockford. (Brian L. Lightfoot)

Brian was born on 4 May 1947 in Winona, MN²¹ and was baptized on 29 Mar 1961 in Springfield, IL.

Marriage Notes:

Brian and Carol were high school sweethearts both graduating from Rockford Auburn High School in 1965. The High School "Prophecy" for Carol said that she would have "4 children all with very light feet". Both had part-time jobs at May Drug Company but worked in different stores in Rockford, Illinois. Carol worked at various jobs after high school such as secretarial duties at Rogers and Clark Manufacturing, WREX-TV, and other places. Brian worked at Sundstrand Aviation in Rockford for several years after they were married.

The wedding ceremony was performed at "The Church by the Side of the Road" in Rockton, Illinois which is a small town located about 10-15 miles north of Rockford. The main and only attraction in Rockton was the fact that it was the location of a motel resort, The Wagon Wheel Lodge. It sported a large ice rink and for the Sunday services for the guests, there was the Church By The Side Of The Road. The minister of the church, Rev. John Walker, was actually a retired minister from another area. Inside the church were several canaries in bird cages along each side. Whenever the organist would start up a tune, the canaries would join right in.

Brian L. Lightfoot

The wedding ceremony was performed at 2:00 PM in the afternoon and a large reception was held at 6:00 PM in the rented hall of the Machinist Lodge in Rockford. While they were in the reception hall that evening, someone broke into their parked car and had stolen several suitcases with all of Carol's clothes that she had packed for her honeymoon. For the honeymoon, they traveled by car to Florida including Cape Canaveral and the Fort Lauderdale areas.
